

Figure S3: Power of the different methods to detect QTN using a 5% significance level, calculated as in Figure 3 but using haplotype markers. (A) Power calculated across all simulations. (B) Power calculated separately for QTN that showed strong and weak correlation with population structure.